

Short biographies Executive Management

Andrej Vckovski, CEO and Chairman of the Board of Directors

Dr. Andrej Vckovski is a founding partner and CEO of the Netcetera Group. Following his studies at ETH Zurich, he received his doctoral degree at the University of Zurich. He is Chairman of the Swiss Internet Industry Association (simsa) and a Member of the Board of ICTswitzerland as well as of Switzerland Global Enterprise.

Thomas Geier, Chief Financial Officer

Thomas Geier is a graduate mechanical engineer with a postgraduate degree in economics. He has completed further training in Organizational Development and Change Management (ZHAW) and graduated from the Advanced Management Program in Harvard. He joined Netcetera in the early startup phase in 1999. As CFO he leads and develops the areas of finance and controlling, HR and administration. He supported the design and implementation of the current international corporate structure.

Thomas Zangerl, Chief Operations Officer

Thomas Zangerl, Dipl. El. Ing. HTL, after his studies at the HSR Rapperswil, further educated himself with the business management training NDS Economics Engineer FH. After several years as consultant and project manager in the e-commerce sector, he was responsible for large IT data warehouse projects as department manager with a health insurance company. Before taking on the role of COO at Netcetera in 2017, he has been working as a co-head engineer for Netcetera since 2010.